Congratulations to the amazing Toowong State School Deaf Choir. The children performed last Saturday at the Roma Street Parklands for the Cerebral Palsy Picnic in the Park. Many thanks to the talented students for showcasing their Auslan abilities. A huge thanks to Elizabeth Fletcher for her coaching and conducting abilities and her commitment to the students at Toowong.

Dental Van: The dental van has left Toowong State School and was of great benefit. Children were able to conveniently access dental care. Thanks to the dental nurses for their wonderful care of our children. If parents have any dental concerns please contact emergency treatment number 1300 365 997.

Districts: Congratulations to the students who competed today. A further group will be competing on Monday in the West Taylor Bridge Track and Field events. Good luck!

Crossing Supervisor: We are still looking for someone who would like a few hours work as a crossing supervisor helping our two existing ladies. Please let me know if you are interested.

Spell-a-thon: All money should have been returned today, however obviously any further monies can be returned on Monday if you have forgotten. The class with the most money returned wins a Class Pizza Party!

Walking Wheeling Wednesday: This week the interclass trophy was won by 2/3OK with 84%.

P&C News

The P&C has literally bags of old style (but new) uniforms (pants, shirts etc). Does anyone know of any charity that would be interested in these clothes? Could you please let me know if you have any contacts and suggestions? Catherine Rees: 0414 851962.

Our wonderful new tuckshop convener, Thuy, is generally without any help on Tuesdays. She has me on the first Tuesday of the month but struggles the remaining weeks. Is there anyone out there who could give her some help say from school drop off (or 9am) until 11.30 am on any Tuesday of the month? Perhaps a couple of parents could share a spot? I can possibly (with a bit of notice) renegotiate my Tuesday if you can only help on the first Tuesday of the month. Many thanks.
